BNCCORP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)
September 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – Organization of Operations, BNCCORP, INC.

BNCCORP, INC. (BNCCORP or BNC) is a registered bank holding company incorporated under the laws of Delaware. It is the parent company of BNC National Bank (the Bank or BNC Bank). BNC operates community banking and wealth management businesses in North Dakota, Arizona and Minnesota from 13 locations. The Bank also conducts mortgage banking through a consumer-direct channel complemented by retail channels from 11 locations in Arizona, Minnesota, North Dakota, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and Michigan. The consumer direct channel emphasizes technology (internet leads and call center) to originate mortgage loans throughout the United States. The retail channel is primarily relationship driven and originations are generally near mortgage banking locations.

NOTE 2 – Basis of Presentation and Accounting Policies

The accounting and reporting policies of BNC and its subsidiaries (collectively, the Company) conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and general practices within the financial services industry. The consolidated financial statements included herein are for BNC and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the presumption that users of the interim consolidated financial information have either read or have access to the audited consolidated financial statements of BNCCORP, INC. and subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2019. Accordingly, footnote disclosures which would substantially duplicate the disclosures contained in the December 31, 2019 audited consolidated financial statements have been omitted from these interim consolidated financial statements. These interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2019 and the notes thereto.

The accompanying interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of income and expenses during the reporting period. These estimates are based on information available to management at the time the estimates are made.

The unaudited consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2020, include, in the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting primarily of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial results for the respective interim periods and are not necessarily indicative of results of operations to be expected for the entire fiscal year.

RECENTLY ISSUED OR ADOPTED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS & INTERPRETATIONS

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases – Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 842. The amended guidance requires lessees to recognize leases on-balance sheet and disclose key information about leasing arrangements. ASC Topic 842 (ASC 842) establishes a right of use (ROU) model that requires a lessee to recognize a ROU asset and lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases with a term longer than 12 months. Leases are required to be classified as finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern and classification of expense recognition in the income statement.

ASU No. 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, replaces the current incurred loss methodology for recognizing credit losses with a current expected credit loss model, which requires the measurement of all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. This amended guidance broadens the information that an entity must consider in developing its expected credit loss estimates. Additionally, this update amends the accounting for credit losses for available-for-sale debt securities and purchased financial assets with a more-than-insignificant amount of credit deterioration since origination. This update requires enhanced disclosures to help investors and other financial statement users better understand significant estimates and judgments used in estimating credit losses, as well as the credit quality and underwriting standards of a company's loan portfolio. This update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. This update requires the use of the modified retrospective adoption approach and the Company is currently evaluating the impact that this amended guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

ASC 310-40, Receivables – Troubled Debt Restructurings by Creditors. In the first quarter of 2020, in response to economic conditions related to the COVID-19 pandemic, federal and state prudential banking regulators issued guidance on their approach for loan modifications. The guidance indicates that short-term modifications such as payment deferrals, made on a good faith basis in response to COVID-19, to borrowers who were current on contractually required payments as of December 31, 2019, are not considered Troubled Debt Restructurings (TDRs). The Financial Accounting Standards Board was consulted on and concurs with this guidance.

NOTE 3 – Debt Securities Available for Sale

Debt securities have been classified in the consolidated balance sheets according to management’s intent. The Company had no securities designated as trading or held-to-maturity in its portfolio at September 30, 2020, or December 31, 2019. The carrying amount of available-for-sale debt securities and their estimated fair values were as follows (in thousands):

	As of September 30, 2020

The amortized cost and estimated fair market value of available-for-sale debt securities classified according to their contractual maturities at September 30, 2020, were as follows (in thousands):

	Amortized Cost	Estimated Fair Value
Due in one year or less	$ -	$ -
Due after one year through five years	4,995	5,079
Due after five years through ten years	38,348	40,680
Due after ten years	134,114	140,776
Total	$ 177,457	$ 186,535

The table above is not intended to reflect actual maturities, cash flows, or interest rate risk. Actual maturities may differ from the contractual maturities shown above as a result of prepayments.

The following table shows the Company's debt securities fair value and gross unrealized losses; aggregated by debt security category and length of time that individual debt securities have been in a continuous unrealized loss position (dollars are in thousands):

Management regularly evaluates each debt security with unrealized losses to determine whether losses are other-than-temporary. When determining whether a debt security is other-than-temporarily impaired, management assesses whether it has the intent to sell the security or whether it is more likely than not that it will be required to sell the security before a recovery of amortized cost. When evaluating a debt security, management considers several factors including, but not limited to, the amount of the unrealized loss, the length of time the debt security has been in a loss position, guarantees provided by third parties, ratings on the debt security, cash flow from the debt security, the level of credit support provided by subordinate tranches of the debt security, and the collateral underlying the debt security.

There were no debt securities that management concluded were other-than-temporarily impaired at September 30, 2020, or December 31, 2019.

The following table shows the balance in the allowance for credit losses at September 30, 2020, and December 31, 2019, and the related loan balances, segregated on the basis of impairment methodology (in thousands). Impaired loans are loans on nonaccrual status and troubled debt restructurings, which are individually evaluated for impairment, and other loans deemed to have similar risk characteristics. All other loans are collectively evaluated for impairment.

Performing and non-accrual loans

The Bank's key credit quality indicator is the loan's performance status, defined as accrual or non-accrual. Performing loans are considered to have a lower risk of loss and are on accrual status. Non-accrual loans include loans on which the accrual of interest has been discontinued. Accrual of interest is discontinued when the Bank believes that the borrower's financial condition is such that the collection of interest is doubtful. A delinquent loan is generally placed on non-accrual status when it becomes 90 days or more past due unless the loan is well secured and in the process of collection. When a loan is placed on non-accrual status, accrued but uncollected interest income applicable to the current reporting period is reversed against interest income. Accrued but uncollected interest income applicable to previous reporting periods is charged against the allowance for credit losses. No additional interest is accrued on the loan balance until the collection of both principal and interest becomes reasonably certain. Delinquent balances are determined based on the contractual terms of the loan adjusted for charge-offs and payments applied to principal.

The following table sets forth information regarding the Bank's performing and non-accrual loans (in thousands):

Credit Risk by Internally Assigned Grade

The Company maintains an internal risk rating process in order to increase the precision and effectiveness of credit risk management. Internal grade is generally categorized into the following four categories: pass, watch list, substandard and doubtful.

At September 30, 2020, the Company had $586.7 million of loans held for investment categorized as pass rated loans compared to $489.8 million at December 31, 2019.

Loans designated as watch list are loans that possess some credit deficiency that deserves close attention due to emerging problems. Such loans pose unwarranted financial risk that, if left uncorrected, may result in deterioration of the repayment prospects for the asset or in the Bank's credit position at some future date. At September 30, 2020, the Company had $10.2 million of loans categorized as watch list loans compared to $9.2 million at December 31, 2019.

Loans graded as substandard or doubtful are considered "Classified" loans for regulatory purposes. Loans classified as substandard are loans that are generally inadequately protected by the current net worth and paying capacity of the obligor, or by the collateral pledged, if any. Loans classified as substandard have a well-defined weakness or weaknesses that jeopardize the liquidation of the debt. Substandard loans are characterized by the distinct possibility that the Bank will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected. Loans classified as doubtful have the weaknesses of those classified as substandard, with additional characteristics that make collection in full on the basis of currently existing facts, conditions and values questionable, and there is a high possibility of loss. At September 30, 2020, the Company had $8.5 million of substandard loans and $2.1 million of doubtful loans. At December 31, 2019, the Company had $7.8 million of substandard loans and $1.5 million of doubtful loans.

Impaired loans

Impaired loans include loans on which the Bank will not be able to collect all amounts due in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement. Impaired loans include non-accruing loans and loans that have been modified in a troubled debt restructuring. All loans are individually reviewed for impairment.

Troubled Debt Restructuring (TDRs)

Included in net loans and leases held for investment, are certain loans that have been modified in order to maximize collection of loan balances. If the Company, for legal or economic reasons related to the borrower's financial difficulties, grants a concession that the Bank would not otherwise consider, compared to the original terms and conditions of the loan, the modified loan is considered a troubled debt restructuring.

The tables below summarize the amounts of restructured loans (in thousands):

TDR concessions can include reduction of interest rates below market rates, extension of maturity dates, forgiveness of principal and/or interest due, or acceptance of real estate or other assets in full or partial satisfaction of the debt. Loan modifications are not reported as TDR's after 12 months if the loan was modified at a market rate of interest for comparable risk loans, and the loan is performing in accordance with the terms of the restructured agreement for at least six months.

When a loan is modified as a TDR, there may be a direct, material impact on the loans within the consolidated balance sheets, as principal balances may be partially forgiven. There were no new TDR for the three-month period ended September 30, 2020 and one new TDR for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2020 with a pre-modification and post-modification balance of $230 thousand. There were no new TDRs for the three- or nine-month period ended September 30, 2019. Loans that were non-accrual prior to modification remain on non-accrual for at least six months following modification. Non-accrual TDR loans that have performed according to the modified terms for six months may be returned to accruing status. Loans that were accruing prior to modification remain on accrual status after the modification as long as the loan continues to perform under the new terms.

The following table indicates the effect on interest income on loans if interest on restructured loans outstanding at period end had been recognized at original contractual rates (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30,		September 30,
	2020	2019	2020	2019

Interest income recorded	-	22	9	65
Effect on interest income on loans	$ 55	$ 55	$ 152	$ 165

There were no additional funds committed to borrowers who are in TDR status at September 30, 2020, and December 31, 2019.

TDRs are evaluated separately in the Bank's allowance methodology based on the expected cash flows or collateral values for loans in this status.

The Bank had no loans that were restructured within the 12 months preceding September 30, 2020, and September 30, 2019 and defaulted during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2020, and September 30, 2019.

NOTE 6 – Leases

The Company has operating leases, primarily for office space, that expire over the next seven years. These leases generally contain renewal options for periods ranging from one to five years. The Company has evaluated each individual lease to determine if exercising the renewal option was probable and considered the renewal into determining the lease term and associated payments. The Company's leases generally do not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include both fixed and variable payments. The variable payments are for the Company's proportionate share of the building's property taxes, insurance, and common area maintenance. As most of the Company's leases do not provide an implicit rate, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the lease commencement date in determining the present value of the lease payments.

The components of lease cost for the three- and nine-month period ended September 30, 2020, and September 30, 2019, were as follows (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30,		September 30,

NOTE 8 – Share-Based Compensation

The Company may grant share-based compensation at prices equal to the fair value of the stock at the grant date. The Company has two share-based plans for certain key employees and directors whereby shares of common stock have been reserved for awards in the form of stock options or restricted stock awards. The plans are as follows:

	1995	2015	Total
Total Shares in Plan	250,000	50,000	300,000
Total Shares Available for Issuance	45,951	35,625	81,576

Following is a summary of stock option transactions for the nine-month periods ending September 30:

	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2020		Nine Months Ended September 30, 2019
	Options to Purchase Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Options to Purchase Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Outstanding, beginning of year	21,000	$ 3.00	42,600	$ 3.00

Forfeited	-	-	-	-
Outstanding, end of period	-	-	27,600	3.00

The stock options expired on March 17, 2020. Option holders were able to pay the exercise price of a stock option in cash or through the surrender of shares of stock held by the option holder at the time of exercise. Executives selling shares into the market are encouraged, but not required, to do so under a passive trading plan that meets the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Rule 10b-5.

The Company recognized share-based compensation expense of $7,000 related to restricted stock for the three-month period ended September 30, 2020, and $21,000 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2020. The Company recognized share-based compensation expense of $5,000 related to restricted stock for the three-month period ended September 30, 2019, and $15,000 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2019.

At September 30, 2020, the Company had $54,000 of unamortized restricted stock compensation expense. The cost of a restricted stock grant is recognized over the vesting period, which is generally four years.

- (a) This revenue is not within the scope of ASC 606, and includes fees related to mortgage banking operations, gains on sale of loans, gains on sale of debt securities, revenue from investments in SBIC, and various other transactions.

The Company had no material contract assets or remaining performance obligations as of September 30, 2020. Total receivables from revenue recognized under the scope of ASC 606 were $486 thousand as of September 30, 2020, and $460 thousand as of December 31, 2019. These receivables are included as part of the Other assets line on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 10 – Fair Value Measurements

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement, defines fair value and establishes a framework for measuring fair value of assets and liabilities using a hierarchy system consisting of three levels based on the markets in which the assets and liabilities are traded and the reliability of the assumptions used to determine fair value. These levels are:

Level 1: Valuation is based upon quoted prices for identical instruments traded in active markets that the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2: Valuation is based upon quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active and model-based valuation techniques for which significant assumptions are observable in the market.

Level 3: Valuation is generated from model-based techniques that use significant assumptions not observable in the market and are used only to the extent that observable inputs are not available. These unobservable assumptions reflect the Company's own estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

For the periods presented, Treasury Securities were considered to be Level 1 while all other assets and liabilities valued at fair value were considered to be Level 2. There were no transfers into or out of the respective levels during the periods presented.

The following tables summarize the financial assets and liabilities of the Company for which fair values are determined on a recurring basis (in thousands):

	Carrying Value at September 30, 2020				Nine Months Ended September 30, 2020

The Company sells short positions in mortgage-backed securities to hedge interest rate risk on the loans committed for mandatory delivery. The commitments to originate and sell mortgage banking loans and the short positions are derivatives and are recorded at fair value.

The Company may also be required from time to time to measure certain other financial assets at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. These adjustments to fair value usually result from the application of the lower-of-cost-or-market accounting or the write-down of individual assets. For assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis, the following tables provide the level of valuation assumptions used to determine the carrying value (in thousands):

	Carrying Value at September 30, 2020				Nine Months Ended September 30, 2020
	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total gains/(losses)

Total	$ 2,752	$ -	$ -	$ 2,752	$ (438)

- (1) The carrying value represents the book value less allocated reserves. The gain or loss reported is the change in the reserve balances allocated on individual impaired loans in addition to the actual write-downs for the period presented.
- (2) The carrying value represents the fair value of the collateral less estimated selling costs and is based upon appraised values. The gain or loss reported is a combination of gains and/or losses on sales of other real estate and provisions for other real estate losses.

While the overall loan portfolio is not carried at fair value, reserves are allocated, on certain loans, to reflect fair value based on the external appraised value of the underlying collateral, less anticipated costs to sell, or through present value of future cash flow models for impaired loans that are not collateral dependent. The external appraisals are generally based on a sales, income or cost approach, which are then adjusted for the unique characteristics of the property being valued. The valuation of impaired loans are reviewed on a quarterly basis. Because many of these inputs are not observable, the measurements are classified as Level 3.

NOTE 11 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments

At December 31, 2019, the pledged collateral for the secured BNC National Bank Line was comprised of commercial real estate loans and the pledged collateral for the secured BNC Line was the common stock of BNC National Bank.

NOTE 14 – Guaranteed Preferred Beneficial Interests in Company’s Subordinated Debentures

In July 2007, BNC issued $15.0 million of floating rate subordinated debentures. The interest rate paid on the securities is equal to the three month LIBOR plus 1.40%. The interest rate at September 30, 2020, and December 31, 2019, was 1.70% and 3.50%, respectively. The subordinated debentures mature on October 1, 2037. The subordinated debentures may be redeemed at par and the corresponding debentures may be prepaid at the option of BNCCORP, subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board.

NOTE 15 – Stockholders’ Equity

Regulatory restrictions exist regarding the ability of the Bank to transfer funds to BNCCORP in the form of cash dividends. Approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), the Bank’s principal regulator, is required for BNC Bank to pay dividends to BNC in excess of the Bank’s net profits from the current year plus retained net profits for the preceding two years.

While the Company has not historically paid a dividend or repurchased stock, if the Company elected to do so, the Company may be required to seek regulatory approval from the Federal Reserve Board.

NOTE 16 – Regulatory Capital and Current Operating Environment

BNC and BNC Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet capital requirements mandated by regulators can trigger certain mandatory and discretionary actions by regulators. Such actions, if undertaken, could have a direct material adverse effect on the Company’s financial condition and results of operations. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, BNC and BNC Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of their assets, liabilities and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. Regulators may also impose capital requirements that are specific to individual institutions. The requirements are generally above the statutory ratios.

At September 30, 2020, the capital ratios exceeded all regulatory capital thresholds and maintained sufficient capital conservation buffers to avoid limitations on certain types of capital distributions.

At September 30, 2020, and December 31, 2019, the regulatory capital amounts and ratios were as follows (dollars in thousands):

(a) Tangible common equity is calculated by dividing common equity, less intangible assets, by total period end assets.

The most recent notifications from the OCC categorized the Bank as “well capitalized” under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. Management believes the Bank remains well capitalized through the date for which subsequent events have been evaluated.

Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

We refer to “we”, “our”, “BNC”, or “the Company” when such reference includes BNCCORP, INC. and its consolidated subsidiaries, collectively; “BNCCORP” when referring only to the holding company named BNCCORP, INC.; “the Bank”, or “BNC Bank” when referring only to BNC National Bank. Where not otherwise indicated below, financial condition and results of operation discussed are of BNCCORP, INC.

Comparison of Results for the Three Months Ended September 30, 2020, and 2019

Summary for the Three Months Ended September 30, 2020, and 2019

Net income was $13.7 million, or $3.84 per diluted share, for the quarter ended September 30, 2020. This compared to net income of $4.6 million, or $1.30 per diluted share, in the same period of 2019.

Net interest income for the third quarter of 2020 was $7.9 million, an increase of $599 thousand, or 8.2%, from $7.3 million for the same period of 2019. The gain primarily reflected the impact of increases in loans held for sale and loans held for investment, including PPP loans, the reduction of debt securities to support increased loan activity, reduced cost of deposits, lower balances and costs of FHLB advances, and the redemption of $10.0 million of subordinated debt in the fourth quarter of 2019. The net interest margin for the current period increased to 3.09% from 2.98% a year ago.

Interest income decreased by $963 thousand for the quarter ended September 30, 2020, to $8.7 million in 2020, compared to $9.7 million for the third quarter of 2019. A portion of the decrease is a result of the impact of higher average loan balances and a reduction in loan yields due to growth in mortgage loans held for sale and PPP loans. Additionally, interest income from debt securities decreased as debt securities balances were liquidated to support the increase in loan activity. Yield on average interest-earning assets was 3.42% in the third quarter of 2020, compared to 3.92% in the 2019 third quarter.

During the third quarter of 2020, the average balance of interest earning assets increased by $43.6 million when compared to the third quarter of 2019. Average loans held for investment increased $118.7 million, or 24.4%, and average loans held for sale increased by $99.8 million, or 112.8%, when comparing the third quarters of 2020 and 2019. The average balance of debt securities decreased by $207.4 million, or 52.4%, in the third quarter of 2020, compared to the same period a year ago. Yields on debt securities decreased to 2.33% in the third quarter of 2020 from 2.54% in the same period of 2019.

Interest expense in the third quarter of 2020 was $827 thousand, a decrease of $1.6 million, or 65.4%, from the same period in 2019. The cost of interest bearing liabilities decreased to 0.43% in the current quarter from 1.20% in the same period of 2019. The cost of core deposits was 0.33% in the third quarter of 2020 and 0.89% in the same period of 2019. Interest expense was also $159 thousand lower in the 2020 third quarter due to the redemption of $10.0 million of subordinated debt in the fourth quarter of 2019.

While credit risks have not yet manifested in significantly increased nonperforming loan levels, the Company recorded a provision for credit losses of $350 thousand in the third quarter of 2020, due to the uncertain economic impact of COVID-19, compared to $300 thousand in the same period of 2019. Loan balances charged-off in the third quarter of 2020 were $32 thousand.

Non-interest income for the third quarter of 2020 was $25.2 million. This compares to non-interest income of $11.9 million for the same period in 2019, an increase of $13.3 million, or 111.0%. Mortgage banking revenues were $23.9 million in the current period compared to $9.0 million in the same period of 2019. The increase was driven by lower interest rates facilitating higher mortgage banking origination activity in addition to increased margins relative to the year-ago period. Gains on sales of assets aggregated $96 thousand in the third quarter of 2020, compared to $1.7 million in the prior year third quarter. Gains on sales of assets and earnings from certain investments can vary significantly from period to period.

Non-interest expense for the third quarter of 2020 was $14.6 million compared to $12.9 million in the same period of 2019, an increase of $1.7 million. Salaries and benefits increased $826 thousand, or 12.9%, from the third quarter 2019. The increase in salaries and employee benefits relates to mortgage operations due to elevated levels of loan production in the third quarter of 2020 compared to the same period in 2019. Professional services in the third quarter of 2020 were up $534 thousand, or 33.3%, from the third quarter 2019, due to increased mortgage loan closing costs partially offset by reductions in consulting, audit, and legal expenses. Other expense increased by $715 thousand when compared to the same period of 2019 due primarily to an impairment charge of a property to reflect the estimated fair value of a branch location.

In the third quarter of 2020, the Company recorded tax expense of $4.4 million, which resulted in an effective tax rate of 24.5% for the quarter. Tax expense of $1.5 million was recognized during the same period of 2019, which resulted in an effective tax rate of 23.9%. The increase in the effective tax rate in 2020 is due to higher pre-tax revenues and lower non-taxable interest income from municipal securities.

Summary for the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2020 and 2019

Net income was $32.2 million, or $9.02 per diluted share, for the nine months ended September 30, 2020. This compared to net income of $8.7 million, or $2.45 per diluted share, in the first nine months of 2019.

Net interest income for the nine months ended September 30, 2020, was $23.8 million, an increase of $2.5 million, or 11.7%, from $21.3 million for the same period of 2019. The increase primarily reflected the positive impact of the decreased cost of deposits and borrowings, and the redemption of $10.0 million of subordinated debt in the fourth quarter of 2019. The net interest margin for the current period increased to 3.22% from 2.98% a year ago.

Interest income decreased to $27.3 million, compared to $28.2 million for the same period of 2019. The decrease reflected the impact of higher average loan balances offset by lower loan yields due the growth in mortgage loans held for sale and PPP loans. In addition, interest income from debt securities decreased as reduced debt securities balances supported increased loan activity. The yield on average interest-earning assets in the first nine months of 2020 decreased to 3.70% from 3.93% during the first nine months of 2019. During the first nine months of 2020, the average balance of interest-earning assets increased by $30.4 million when compared to the first nine months of 2019. Average loans held for investment increased $93.6 million, or 19.7%, and average loans held for sale increased by $93.9 million, or 175.6%, when comparing the first nine months of 2020 and 2019. The average balance of debt securities decreased by $198.6 million, or 48.0%, in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2020, compared to the same period a year ago. Yields on debt securities decreased to 2.49% in the first nine months of 2020 from 2.61% in the same period of 2019.

Interest expense in the first nine months of 2020 was $3.5 million, a decrease of $3.4 million, or 49.2%, from the same period in 2019. The cost of interest-bearing liabilities decreased to 0.62% in the first nine months of 2020 from 1.17% in the first nine months of 2019. Interest expense on deposits decreased as a result of decreased cost of deposits. The cost of core deposits was 0.47% in the first nine months of 2020 and 0.88% in the first nine months of 2019. Interest expense also was $476 thousand lower in the 2020 first nine months due to the redemption of $10.0 million of subordinated debt in the fourth quarter of 2019, and $341 thousand lower due to lower cost of borrowings and lower volume and cost of FHLB advances.

Total loans held for investment increased by $116.3 million, or 23.7%, from September 30, 2019. PPP loan balances of $85.7 million drove a $97.9 million, or 19.2%, increase in loans held for investment compared to December 31, 2019. Mortgage loans held for sale increased by $91.9 million, or 62.5%, from September 30, 2019, and $101.9 million from December 31, 2019 due to higher mortgage origination activity in 2020.

Total deposits increased by $60.5 million to $881.0 million at September 30, 2020, from $820.5 million at December 31, 2019. In the first quarter of 2020, the Company exercised its ability to bring back deposits previously moved off its balance sheet in fourth quarter of 2019 deleveraging activities. Deposit growth during the 2020 period was also supported by PPP loan customers depositing loan proceeds with BNC prior to utilization offset by a reduction of certificates of deposit.

Short-term borrowings increased $1.6 million at September 30, 2020 compared to December 31, 2019 and FHLB borrowings increased by $27.6 million during the same period as the Company used FHLB advances as a flexible means of supporting the increase in mortgage loans held for sale at the end of the third quarter of 2020.

While credit risks have not yet manifested in significantly increased nonperforming loan levels, the Company recorded a provision for credit losses of $2.4 million in the first nine months of 2020 as compared to $500 thousand in the same period of 2019. The increase was primarily attributed to pandemic-related qualitative risks identified in certain loan portfolio segments, specifically hospitality, restaurants, fitness and retail sectors, as well as commercial real estate. Loan balances charged-off in the first nine months of 2020 were $556 thousand.

Non-interest income for the nine months ended September 30, 2020, was $62.3 million. This compares to non-interest income of $23.5 million for the same period in 2019, an increase of $38.8 million, or 165.2%. Mortgage banking revenues aggregated $57.6 million in the current period compared to $17.3 million in the first nine months of 2019, as lower interest rates continued to support higher mortgage banking origination activity and margins increased relative to the year-ago period. Gains on sales of assets aggregated $1.2 million in the first nine months of 2020, compared to $2.2 million in the prior period. Gains on sales of assets and earnings from certain investments can vary significantly from period to period.

Non-interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2020, was $41.1 million compared to $33.0 million in the same period of 2019, an increase of $8.1 million. Salaries and employee benefits increased $4.6 million, or 27.3%, from the first nine months of 2019. The increase in salaries and employee benefits is primarily attributed to mortgage operations and is directly attributed to elevated funding levels over the first nine-months of 2020. Professional services in the first nine months of 2020 were up $1.7 million, or 48.0%, from the first nine months of 2019, related exclusively to mortgage loan closing costs. Other expense increased by $1.2 million when compared to the same period of 2019 due to recording a provision for mortgage reimbursement obligations, mortgage related personnel recruiting costs, and the impairment charge of a property.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2020, income tax expense was $10.4 million, compared to $2.6 million in the first nine months of 2019. The effective tax rate was 24.5% in the first nine months of 2020, compared to 23.0% in the same period of 2019. The increase in the effective tax rate for the 2020 period is due to higher pre-tax revenues and lower non-taxable interest income from municipal securities.

- Cash balances can fluctuate from period to period based on liquidity sources and uses of the business.
- Average debt securities portfolio balances have decreased as debt securities were liquidated to provide liquidity to support the increase in loan activity.
- The average balance of loans held for sale increased in the third quarter of 2020 as the lower interest rate environment continued to support increased mortgage loan originations activity.
- The average balance of loans held for investment rose compared to the third quarter of 2019 due to steady loan activity in our core markets throughout 2019 and funding of PPP loans in the second quarter of 2020.
- Overall, average interest-bearing deposit balances have decreased due to a decrease in certificates of deposit as BNC has lowered offered rates on new certificates of deposit.
- Short-term borrowings increased based increased customers use of repurchase agreements.
- FHLB short-term advances have been utilized to flexibly manage our balance sheet.
- In the fourth quarter of 2019, the Company re-paid $10.0 million of subordinated debt as a part of implementing a deleveraging strategy.
- Non-interest-bearing deposits have increased as customers placed proceeds from PPP loans in deposit accounts prior to utilization.

- (a) Bank charges and service fees decreased due to decreases in loan servicing income and non-use fees on lines of credit along with lower deposit charges and ATM interchange income.
- (b) Mortgage banking revenues increased as lower interest rates are facilitating higher origination activity in addition to increased margins.
- (c) Gains on sale of loans can vary significantly from period to period.
- (d) Gains and losses on sales of debt securities may vary significantly from period to period as the Company manages liquidity needs and the risk and return profile of its debt securities portfolio.
- (e) Other income decreased largely due to SBIC income received in the 2019 period that did not recur.

- (a) Salaries and employee benefits increased due to increased mortgage production in 2020.
- (b) Professional services expense increased primarily due to increased mortgage banking production costs partially offset by reductions in consulting, audit, and legal expenses.
- (c) Data processing fees increased due to increased software maintenance, licensing fees and IT security costs.
- (d) Marketing and promotion increased due to increased mortgage banking lead costs partially offset by reduced expenses in our banking markets.
- (e) Regulatory costs decrease relates to a decrease in the FDIC and OCC Assessments.
- (f) Office supplies and postage decreased due to a reduction in paper, office and data supplies, and customer checks.
- (g) Other expenses increased due to recruitment cost for mortgage banking operations support staff in addition to an impairment charge of a property to reflect the estimated fair value of a branch location.

Mortgage Banking Division Selected Data

The following table sets forth information related to mortgage banking products funded and sold with servicing released by the Bank. The following selected data is not intended to be interpreted as a statement of profit and loss as it excludes interest income, interest expense, shared service expenses, and tax expense.

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2020	2019	2020	2019

Direct non-interest expense	$ 6,861	$ 5,418	$ 19,105	$ 11,504

(1) Includes changes in fair value of mortgage commitments, hedge instruments, and loans held for sale

The Company's mortgage banking division originates and sells a variety of conventional and government sponsored mortgage loan products with servicing released through two primary channels. The retail channel is predominantly relationship driven with originators capitalizing on local relationships to originate loans through four retail bank branches and seven midwest retail mortgage locations. The consumer direct channel uses a call-center with internet sales focused on both purchase and refinance transactions across the country from locations in Overland Park, Kansas, and Farmington Hills, Michigan.

The low interest rate environment that began late in 2019 has generated a significant increase in mortgage loan activity that continued through the first nine months of 2020. Non-interest income includes gains on the sale of loans, changes in the fair value of loans held for sale and mortgage banking derivatives, hedge instruments as well as commissions expense.

The increase in unemployment related to COVID-19 has put pressure on mortgage borrowers. In response, federal agencies such as Ginnie Mae and Fannie Mae have allowed borrowers to request loan payment deferrals for a period of time. While this program has not had a material impact on BNC in the first nine months of 2020, as we sell loans servicing released, it may impact the ability of mortgage loan servicers to purchase loans and will be monitored as conditions evolve.

Direct non-interest expenses include direct costs necessary to underwrite, process, fund and sell mortgage loans as well as the costs of technology and operational costs specifically identified as serving the mortgage division.

Mortgage Banking Division Selected Data above excludes interest income earned on loans held-for-sale, tax expense, and costs typically allocated to the mortgage division related to internal services shared with other divisions of the Bank.

Income Taxes

In the third quarter of 2020, the Company recorded income tax expense of $4.4 million, which resulted in an effective tax rate of 24.5% for the quarter. Income tax expense of $1.5 million was recognized during the third quarter of 2019, which resulted in an effective tax rate of 23.9%. The resulting effective tax rate for the third quarter of 2020 is due to higher pre-tax revenues and lower non-taxable interest income from municipal securities.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2020, income tax expense was $10.4 million, compared to $2.6 million in the first nine months of 2019. The effective tax rate was 24.5% in the first nine months of 2020, compared to 23.0% in the same period of 2019. The increase in the effective tax rate for the full year of 2020 is due to higher pre-tax revenues and lower non-taxable interest income from municipal securities.

- (a) Cash balances can fluctuate significantly from period to period based on liquidity sources and uses of the business.
- (b) Investment balances have decreased to provide available liquidity for loan growth.
- (c) Federal Reserve Bank and FHLB of Des Moines stock will vary based on the Company's utilization of FHLB advances.
- (d) Loans held for sale increased as balances will fluctuate with the timing of loan funding and sales. During 2020, mortgage banking loan funding increased due to interest rates favorable to mortgage refinancing activity.
- (e) PPP loans totaling $85.7 million drove an increase in loans and leases held for investment.
- (f) The Company recorded a provision for credit losses primarily attributed to qualitative risks identified in certain loan portfolio segments that were impacted more directly by the COVID-19 pandemic.
- (g) Premises and equipment decreased due to an impairment charge of a property to reflect the estimated fair value of a branch location.
- (h) Operating lease right of use asset as required by ASC 842, Leases – See Note 6.
- (i) Accrued interest receivable increased due to the impact of payment deferrals on loans modified to provide assistance to our borrowers under Section 4013 of the CARES Act.
- (j) Other assets increased primarily due to the increase in fair value of mortgage banking commitments to originate.

Loan Participations

Pursuant to our lending policy, loans may not exceed 85 percent of the Bank's legal lending limit (except to the extent collateralized by U.S. Treasury securities or Bank deposits) unless the Bank's Chief Credit Officer or the Executive Credit Committee grant prior approval. To accommodate creditworthy customers whose financing needs exceed lending limits and internal restrictions, the Bank sells loan participations to outside participants without recourse. Loan participations sold on a nonrecourse basis to outside financial institutions were $159.9 million as of September 30, 2020, and $152.2 million as of December 31, 2019. The sales of participations are accounted for pursuant to FASB ASC 860, Transfers and Servicing.

Concentrations of Credit

The following table summarizes the locations and balances of the Company's borrowers (dollars are in thousands):

The Company's borrowers use loan proceeds for projects in various geographic areas. The following table summarizes the locations and balances where borrowers are using loan proceeds (dollars are in thousands):

	September 30, 2020		December 31, 2019

BNC's loans and leases held for investment are concentrated geographically in North Dakota and Arizona. North Dakota and Arizona loans make up 58% and 28% of the total loan portfolio, respectively. The North Dakota economy is influenced by the energy and agriculture industries. An extended period of low energy prices may negatively impact credit quality in North Dakota. The Arizona economy is influenced by leisure and travel. An extended slowdown in these industries may negatively impact credit quality in Arizona. BNC's portfolio is constructed of various sized loans spread over a large number of industry sectors, although concentrations of loans in hospitality and real estate make up notable percentages of the portfolio.

The following table approximates the Company's significant concentrations by industry, excluding PPP loans (dollars are in thousands):

	September 30, 2020
Non-owner Occupied Commercial Real estate (not otherwise categorized)	$ 141,294	27 %

Gross loans held for investment (excluding PPP loans)	$ 521,842	100 %

The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted all markets as the country continues to take measures to contain the spread of the virus. Business closures are negatively impacting the Company's commercial customers' ability to generate earnings while consumer customers are increasingly subject to employment uncertainty.

The hospitality industry is experiencing unprecedented low hotel occupancy and restaurant utilization. The hospitality industry began to rebound early in May 2020, only to be impacted by the summer surge of COVID-19, especially in Arizona. The oil and gas industry is experiencing low oil prices due to COVID-19 related demand issues that are further impacted by geo-political disagreements. Oil prices have improved but not at a level to sustain and re-energize oil and gas activity in North Dakota. These COVID-19 influenced economic conditions are expected to negatively impact various industry sectors.

Loan Maturities<sup>(1)</sup>

The following table sets forth the maturities of loans in each major category of the Company's portfolio as of September 30, 2020 (in thousands):

	One year or less	Over 1 year through 5 years		Over 5 years		Total Loans and Leases Held for Investment

(1) Maturities are based on contractual maturities. Indexed rate loans include loans that would reprice prior to maturity if base rates change.

Actual maturities may differ from the contractual maturities shown above as a result of renewals and prepayments. Loan renewals are evaluated in the same manner as new credit applications.

Allocation of the Allowance for Credit Losses

The table below presents, for the periods indicated, the allocation of the allowance for credit losses among the various loan categories and sets forth the percentage of loans in each category to gross loans. The allocation of the allowance for credit losses as shown in the table should neither be interpreted as an indication of future charge-offs, nor as an indication that charge-offs in future periods will necessarily occur in these amounts or in the indicated proportions (dollars are in thousands).

Problem Loans

Management attempts to quantify potential problem loans with more immediate credit risk. The table below summarizes the amounts of potential problem loans (in thousands):

	Watch List			Substandard
	Impaired	Other	Total	Impaired	Other	Total
September 30, 2020	$ -	$ 10,166	$ 10,166	$ 1,560	$ 6,920	$ 8,480
December 31, 2019	$ 1,448	$ 7,713	$ 9,161	$ 514	$ 7,247	$ 7,761

At September 30, 2020, the Bank had $10.6 million of classified loans and $3.7 million of loans on non-accrual. This compares to $9.3 million of classified loans and $2.0 million of loans on non-accrual at December 31, 2019, and $9.4 million of classified loans and $2.3 million of loans on non-accrual at September 30, 2019. As of September 30, 2020, classified and non-accrual loans include two commercial real estate loans with balances of $1.1 million where the underlying properties have subsequently been sold or are pending sale and the sales proceeds are anticipated to fully satisfy their existing loan balances without additional write-downs.

A portion of these potential problem loans are not in default but may have characteristics such as recent adverse operating cash flows or general risk characteristics that the loan officer feels might jeopardize the future timely collection of principal and interest payments. The ultimate resolution of these credits is subject to changes in economic conditions and other factors. These loans are closely monitored to ensure that the Company's position as creditor is protected to the fullest extent possible.

The extent and timing of the pandemic implications are not determinable at this point. Prolonged periods of COVID-19 pandemic disruption of business production, consumer goods and services consumption, and employment could have a material adverse impact on the Company's loan portfolio and operating results. The Company anticipates the provision for credit losses in future periods may be higher than in the recent past related to qualitative indicators in certain sub-segments of its loan portfolio more impacted by unemployment and business interruption.

In the first quarter of 2020, United States Congress enacted the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act in response to economic conditions related to the COVID-19 pandemic. As a part of the CARES Act, Congress provided temporary relief from troubled debt restructurings under Section 4013. Specifically, financial institutions may elect to suspend US GAAP for loan modifications related to COVID-19 and suspend any loan modified as a result of the effects of COVID-19 as being a troubled debt restructuring, including impairment so long as the subject loan was not more than 30 days past due as of December 31, 2019.

Subsequently, guidance was issued jointly by regulatory authorities related to troubled debt restructuring loan treatment that is consistent with the CARES Act. The guidance allows banks to prudently modify loans such as the temporary deferral of principal and interest. Financial institutions have been encouraged to provide modifications in situations where it will provide time to allow otherwise performing borrowers the opportunity to financially recover from potentially short-term COVID-19 related economic conditions.

To this end, BNC has modified approximately $205 million of loans consistent with Section 4013 of the CARES Act and inter-agency guidance, allowing customers to defer payments or modify their loans. These loans were current as of December 31, 2019, and as a result, are not currently subject to troubled debt restructuring accounting standards. At September 30, 2020, approximately $158 million of these modified loans had reached expiration of their initial payment deferral period. As of September 30, 2020, borrowers have communicated that they will not be requesting additional assistance for loans aggregating $129 million. The remaining $47 million of CARES Act modified loans will reach the end of their initial payment deferral period by the end of 2020. Economic conditions, including pandemic-related challenges, may result in the Company agreeing to additional loan modifications to assist our borrowers.

Liabilities

The following table presents our liabilities (dollars are in thousands):

	September 30,	December 31,	Increase (Decrease)

Total liabilities	$ 965,784	$ 870,472	$ 95,312	11 %

- (a) BNC exercised its ability to bring back deposits previously moved off-balance sheet. Additional increases are supported by PPP loan customers depositing loan proceeds with BNC prior to utilization.
- (b) Time deposits have decreased as BNC has lowered rates on new certificates of deposit.
- (c) Short-term borrowings will vary depending on our customers need to use repurchase agreements.
- (d) The Company has borrowed on a short-term basis from the FHLB as an efficient source of liquidity.
- (e) Accrued interest payable decreased primarily as a result of lower time deposit balances and lower cost of deposits.
- (f) Accrued expenses increased due to increases in mortgage banking commissions and incentive accruals as well as an increase in the mortgage banking obligation reserve related to the increase in production.
- (g) Operating lease liabilities as required by ASC 842, Leases – See Note 6.
- (h) The increase primarily relates to increased mortgage banking commitments to sell mortgage loans and taxes payable, due to the increase in pre-tax income in 2020.

At September 30, 2020, and December 31, 2019, the Bank had $29.4 million and $45.7 million, respectively, in time deposits greater than $250 thousand.

Mortgage Banking Obligations

Included in accrued expenses is an estimate of mortgage banking reimbursement obligations, which aggregated $1.1 million at September 30, 2020, and $906 thousand at December 31, 2019. Although the Company sells mortgage banking loans without recourse, industry standards require standard representations and warranties, which can require sellers to reimburse investors for economic losses if loans default or prepay after the sale. Repurchase risk is also evident within the mortgage banking industry as disputes arise between lenders and investors. Such requests for repurchase are commonly due to faulty representation and generally emerge at varied timeframes subsequent to the original sale of the loan. To estimate the contingent obligation, the Company tracks historical reimbursements and calculates the ratio of reimbursement to loan production volumes. Using reimbursement ratios and recent production levels, the Company estimates the future reimbursement amounts and record the estimated obligation. The following is a summary of activity related to mortgage banking obligations (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2020	2019	2020	2019
Balance, beginning of period	$ 1,017	$ 893	$ 906	$ 982

Balance, end of period	$ 1,108	$ 1,056	$ 1,108	$ 1,056

Stockholders' Equity

The Company's stockholders' equity increased $38.9 million from December 31, 2019 to September 30, 2020 primarily due to $32.2 million in additional retained earnings and an increase in accumulated other comprehensive income of $6.5 million. As presented in Note 16 – Regulatory Capital and Current Operating Environment, the Company maintains capital in excess of regulatory requirements.

The Company routinely evaluates the sufficiency of its capital in order to ensure compliance with regulatory capital standards and be a source of strength for the Bank. Capital is managed by assessing the composition of capital and amounts available for growth, risk or other purposes. Management regularly evaluates capital requirements and prudent capital management opportunities.

Liquidity Risk Management

Liquidity risk is the possibility of being unable to meet present and future financial obligations in a timely manner. Liquidity risk management encompasses our ability to meet all present and future financial obligations in a timely manner. The objectives of the Company's liquidity management policies are to maintain adequate liquid assets, liability diversification among instruments, maturities and customers and a presence in both the wholesale purchased funds market and the retail deposit market.

The Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows in the Consolidated Financial Statements present data on cash and cash equivalents provided by and used in operating, investing, and financing activities. In addition to liquidity from core deposit growth, together with repayments and maturities of loans and investments, the Company utilizes brokered deposits, sell securities under agreements to repurchase and borrow overnight Federal funds. The Bank is a member of the FHLB of Des Moines. Advances from the FHLB are collateralized by the Bank's mortgage loans and various debt securities. The Bank has the ability to borrow from the Federal Reserve Bank through the Discount Window collateralized by mortgage loans and/or Paycheck Protection Program Liquidity Facility (PPPLF) collateralized by the PPP loans. As of September 30, 2020 the Company has not utilized the PPPLF. Funding through the issuance of subordinated notes, subordinated debentures, and long-term borrowings also has been obtained.

The Company's liquidity is defined by its ability to meet the organization's cash and collateral obligations at a reasonable cost and with a minimum loss of income. Given the uncertain nature of customers' demands, as well as BNC's desire to take advantage of earnings enhancement opportunities, the Company must have adequate sources of on- and off-balance-sheet funds that can be acquired in time of need.

The Company's liquidity position is measured on an as needed basis, but no less frequently than monthly. Liquidity position is measured using the total of the following items:

1. Estimated liquid assets and certain off-balance sheet considerations less estimated volatile liabilities using the aforementioned methodology ($106.3 million as of September 30, 2020);
2. Borrowing capacity from the FHLB ($73.7 million as of September 30, 2020); and
3. Capacity to issue brokered deposits with maturities of less than 12 months ($149.9 million as of September 30, 2020).

On an on-going basis, the Company uses a variety of factors to assess our liquidity position including, but not limited to, the following items:

- Stability of our deposit base;
- Amount of pledged investments;
- Amount of unpledged investments;
- Liquidity of our loan portfolio; and
- Potential loan demand.

BNC's liquidity assessment process segregates its balance sheet into liquid assets along with certain off-balance sheet considerations and short-term liabilities assumed to be vulnerable to non-replacement over a 30-day horizon in abnormally stringent conditions. Assumptions for the vulnerable short-term liabilities are based upon historical factors. The Company has a targeted range for our liquidity position over this horizon and manage operations to achieve these targets.

BNC further projects cash flows over a 12-month horizon based on our assets and liabilities and sources and uses of funds for anticipated events.

Pursuant to the Company's contingency funding plan, it estimates cash flows over a 12-month horizon under a variety of stressed scenarios to identify potential funding needs and funding sources. The organizations contingency plan identifies actions that could be taken in response to adverse liquidity events.

The Company believes this process, combined with our policies and guidelines, should provide for adequate levels of liquidity to fund the anticipated needs of on- and off- balance sheet items.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Market risk arises from changes in interest rates, exchange rates, and commodity prices and equity prices and represents the possibility that changes in future market rates or prices will have a negative impact on the Company's earnings or value. BNC's principal market risk is interest rate risk.

Interest rate risk arises from changes in interest rates. Interest rate risk can result from: (1) Repricing risk – timing differences in the maturity/repricing of assets, liabilities, and off-balance-sheet contracts; (2) Options risk – the effect of embedded options, such as loan prepayments, interest rate caps/floors, and deposit withdrawals; (3) Basis risk – risk resulting from unexpected changes in the spread between two or more different rates of similar maturity, and the resulting impact on the behavior of lending and funding rates; and (4) Yield curve risk – risk resulting from unexpected changes in the spread between two or more rates of different maturities from the same type of instrument. The Company has risk management policies to monitor and limit exposure to interest rate risk. BNC's asset/liability management process is utilized to manage our interest rate risk. The measurement of interest rate risk associated with financial instruments is meaningful only when all related and offsetting on- and off-balance-sheet transactions are aggregated, and the resulting net positions are identified.

The Company's interest rate risk exposure is actively managed with the objective of managing the level and potential volatility of net interest income in addition to the long-term growth of equity, bearing in mind that it will always be in the business of taking on rate risk and that rate risk immunization is not entirely possible. Also, it is recognized that as exposure to interest rate risk is reduced, so too may the overall level of net interest income and equity. In general, the assets and liabilities generated through ordinary business activities do not naturally create offsetting positions with respect to repricing or maturity characteristics. Access to the derivatives market can be an important element in maintaining our interest rate risk position within policy guidelines. Using derivative instruments, principally interest rate floors, caps, and interest rate swaps, the interest rate sensitivity of specific transactions, as well as pools of assets or liabilities, can be adjusted to maintain the desired interest rate risk profile. See Note 2 of the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements for a summary of accounting policies pertaining to such instruments.

The Company's primary tool for measuring and managing interest rate risk is net interest income simulation. This exercise includes assumptions regarding the changes in interest rates and the impact on BNC's current balance sheet. Interest rate caps and floors are included to the extent that they are exercised in the 12-month simulation period. Additionally, changes in prepayment behavior of the residential mortgage, CMOs, and mortgage-backed securities portfolios in each rate environment are captured using industry estimates of prepayment speeds for various coupon segments of the portfolio. For purposes of this simulation, projected month end balances of the various balance sheet accounts are held constant at their September 30, 2020 levels. Cash flows from a given account are reinvested back into the same account so as to keep the month end balance constant at its September 30, 2020 level. The static balance sheet assumption is made so as to project the interest rate risk to net interest income embedded in the existing balance sheet. With knowledge of the balance sheet's existing net interest income profile, more informed strategies and tactics may be developed as it relates to the structure/mix of growth.

The Company monitors the results of net interest income simulation on a regular basis. Net interest income is generally simulated for the upcoming 12-month horizon in seven interest rate scenarios. The scenarios generally modeled are parallel interest rate ramps of +/- 100bp, 200bp, and 300bp along with a rates unchanged scenario. Given the current low absolute level of interest rates as of September 30, 2020, the downward scenarios for interest rate movements is limited to -100bp. The parallel movement of interest rates means all projected market interest rates move up or down by the same amount. A ramp in interest rates means that the projected change in market interest rates occurs over the 12-month horizon on a pro-rata basis. For example, in the +100bp scenario, the projected Prime rate is projected to increase from 3.25% to 4.25% 12 months later. The Prime rate in this example will increase 1/12th of the overall increase of 100 basis points each month.

The net interest income simulation results for the 12-month horizon are shown below (dollars are in thousands):

Net Interest Income Simulation

Movement in interest rates	-100bp	Unchanged	+100bp	+200bp	+300bp
Projected 12-month net interest income	$ 31,739	$ 32,439	$ 32,278	$ 32,027	$ 31,791
Dollar change from unchanged scenario	$ (700)	$ -	$ (161)	$ (412)	$ (648)
Percent change from unchanged scenario	(2.16)%	-	(0.50)%	(1.27)%	(2.00)%

Since there are limitations inherent in any methodology used to estimate the exposure to changes in market interest rates, these analyses are not intended to be a forecast of the actual effect of changes in market interest rates, such as those indicated above on the Company. Further, these analyses are based on assets and liabilities as of September 30, 2020 (without forward adjustments for planned growth and anticipated business activities) and do not contemplate any actions BNC might undertake in response to changes in market interest rates.

Static gap analysis is another tool that may be used for interest rate risk measurement. The net differences between the amount of assets, liabilities, equity and off-balance-sheet instruments repricing within a cumulative calendar period is typically referred to as the “rate sensitivity position” or “gap position.” The following table sets forth the Company’s rate sensitivity position as of September 30, 2020. Assets and liabilities are classified by the earliest possible repricing date or maturity, whichever occurs first.

The table assumes that all savings and interest-bearing demand deposits reprice in the earliest period presented, however, management believes a significant portion of these accounts constitute a core component and are generally not rate sensitive. The Company's position is supported by the fact that reductions in interest rates paid on these deposits historically have not caused notable reductions in balances in net interest income because the repricing of certain assets and liabilities is discretionary and is subject to competitive and other pressures. As a result, assets and liabilities indicated as repricing within the same period may in fact reprice at different times and at different rate levels.

Static gap analysis does not fully capture the impact of embedded options, lagged interest rate changes, administered interest rate products, or certain off-balance-sheet sensitivities to interest rate movements. Therefore, this tool generally cannot be used in isolation to determine the level of interest rate risk exposure in banking institutions.

Since there are limitations inherent in any methodology used to estimate the exposure to changes in market interest rates, these analyses are not intended to be a forecast of the actual effect of changes in market interest rates such as those indicated above on the Company. Further, these analyses are based on BNC's assets and liabilities as of September 30, 2020, and do not contemplate any actions the Company might undertake in response to changes in market interest rates.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time in the ordinary course of business, the Company and its subsidiaries may be a party to legal proceedings arising out of our lending, deposit operations, or other activities. The Company engages in foreclosure proceedings and other collection actions as part of its loan collection activities. From time to time, borrowers may also bring actions against BNC, in some cases claiming damages.

Management is not aware of any material pending or threatening litigation as of September 30, 2020.
